

HOUSE OF MOURNING.

Such is the President's Home in Washington.

THE FUNERAL TRAIN READY.

Mrs. Harrison's Remains Will Be Taken Direct to Indianapolis Where the Funeral Arrangements Have All Been Completed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The east room was put in readiness yesterday afternoon for the funeral services; the house was then closed, and the family were not interrupted in the night with their dead. Private Secretary Halford said that the family would not issue invitations to the funeral services, but expected only the kinsmen and relatives and a few of the closest personal friends of the dead woman and of the president to attend. He added that the family did not wish to make a discrimination by the issuance of invitations and that each person must determine for himself or herself whether or not the relations to the family brought him or her within the designation of a personal friend.

The funeral services at the White House will be severely simple and quite brief. They will begin promptly at 10 o'clock and continue probably not longer than twenty minutes. Rev. Dr. Hamlin will open with the recitation of a few selections from the scriptures adopted to the occasion, closing with a short invocation. Rev. Dr. Bartlett will then read the scripture lesson, following which the boys' choir of St. John's Episcopal, recessed in the adjoining parlor, will sing, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say Come Unto Me and Rest." Dr. Hamlin will offer a closing prayer, and as those present are leaving the room, the choir will render Cardinal Newman's hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light."

The services at Indianapolis, where an address is to be made by Rev. M. L. Haynes, is expected will not last over an hour.

The party which will go to Indianapolis on the funeral train leaving here at 11:30 o'clock will be composed of the following persons: President Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKee, Dr. Scott, Mrs. Dimmick, Lieutenant and Mrs. Parker, Mr. Findlay, of Baltimore, cousin of the president; Vice President Morton, Secretary of State and Mrs. Foster, Mrs. S. B. Elkins, Attorney General and Mrs. Miller, Postmaster General Wamaker, Mrs. Wilmerding, Secretary Noble, Secretary and Mrs. Rusk, Private Secretary Halford, Colonel O. H. Ernst, Mrs. R. C. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Boyd, of Philadelphia, and Miss Sanger.

Returning the train will leave Indianapolis Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock and reach Washington at 8 o'clock p. m. Saturday.

Hundreds of telegrams of condolence have been received from all parts of the world. The secretary of state has filed with Mr. Secretary Halford official expressions of regret received from the governments of Russia, Japan, Corea, Germany, Great Britain, Hawaii, Belgium and Guatemala, received through their representatives here.

Arrangements at the Old Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—The arrangements at this point for the funeral of Mrs. President Harrison are practically completed. The lot in which Mrs. Harrison's remains will be interred was selected by R. S. McKee, who was charged with that commission. The lot lies next to that of Dr. Newcomer, a relative in the Harrison family, and is in a beautiful location, lying about two blocks west of the chapel and adjacent to that part of the cemetery in which are the soldiers' graves.

In accordance with telegraphic instructions from Private Secretary Halford, the list of honorary pallbearers was enlarged. The list, as completed, is as follows: Thomas H. Sharpe, W. P. Fishback, Judge William Thomas Woods, Moses G. McClain, Dr. H. R. Allen, John B. Elam, Hugh Hanna, E. B. Martindale, General Lew Wallace, of Crawfordsville; Hon. William E. Niblack, of Vincennes; John R. Elder and Theodore P. Haughey. For active pallbearers Marshal Ransdell went to the arsenal and selected ten regular army soldiers.

The decoration of the First Presbyterian church, where the burial services will occur, was commenced this morning under the direction of Dr. H. R. Allen and Mr. Lee. The decorations will consist of draperies, flowers and plants, with the national colors conspicuously displayed.

The demand for admittance to the church will be a score of times in excess of its capacity, which is not over 800. There will be no tickets of admission issued. Seats will be reserved for the funeral party and the members of General Harrison's regiment, but beyond these admittance will be granted to those who come first.

When the remains reach this city they will be transferred directly to the church, where a short service will be held, and from the church they will be taken to Crown Hill cemetery for interment. The funeral cortege will move north on Pennsylvania street to Vermont street, then east to Delaware street and north to Seventh and west to Meridian, which is the principal thoroughfare leading to the cemetery. This route will take the cortege past the family residence on Delaware street, which was the home of Mrs. Harrison for many years prior to her removal to Washington, and with which was associated so many of her most pleasant memories.

New Return Postal Cards on Sale.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The new return postal cards were yesterday placed on sale at the postoffices throughout the United States.

STIRRING EVENTS.

General Crespo Recounts His Fight for the Revolution in Venezuela.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—General Crespo, the provisional president of the republic of Venezuela, in a letter to The Herald, under date of Oct. 19, recounts stirring events of his fight for a legal government. His story repeats itself in the Venezuelan revolution, in that from a small beginning great results were accomplished.

When General Crespo issued his manifesto of the 20th of February last, he had but eleven followers, no arms nor munitions of war, but adherents flocked to his standard, and the manner in which he fought his way into Caracas at the head of 14,000 well armed and disciplined troops is now a matter of history.

The Herald, in describing the closing scenes of the revolution says that when Villa's Pulido fled from Caracas at the approach of Crespo, the city was without a government and in the hands of a mob. Not a place of business remained open, but the streets were full of people and vivas for Crespo began to resound from every corner.

Shortly it became whispered about that the national armories had been left open and then a rush was made for them. The doors were found to be wide open and the people helped themselves to cartridges, etc. The powder magazines were raided and set off in a blaze amid the shouts of the mob.

Some one's attention was then directed to La Opinion Nacional, Palacio's newspaper organ. The mob rushed for it with cries of "Down with the traitor's mouthpiece," and in less than half an hour the place was in ruins. The offices of other newspapers favorable to the several usurpers were treated likewise.

LEAVING THE AMALGAMATED.

A New Association of Iron Workers Likely to Be Formed.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—The dissatisfaction that was manifested by the finishers who belonged to the Amalgamated association immediately after the signing of the scale for the present year, has been agitated since so that a movement has become general to sever their connection with the Amalgamated association and form a new union.

Weekly meetings have been held, at each of which the subject was discussed, but no definite action taken. Matters have so shaped themselves now, however, that at the meeting which will be held next Saturday evening a new union will likely be formed. Only the heaters, rollers, roughers and catchers will be eligible to membership. It has not yet been decided whether to exist as a separate organization or to act in conjunction with the Amalgamated association. This will be decided when the new order has been formed.

COLLIERIES SHUT DOWN.

Railroad People Given a Chance to Break the Freight Blockade.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 27.—All the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's collieries have been shut down indefinitely, and work was begun yesterday at overhauling the Mahony plane machinery. It will be several weeks before all the mines are operated again.

This order was issued so as to give the railroad people a chance to break the freight blockade, to which is attributed the recent wrecks, and also because most of the collieries are short of water, and the supply needed for steam purposes had to be hauled a score or more of miles.

The Reading main line is virtually blocked from Philadelphia to Pottsville, with little more than a single track open for the running of regular trains.

NOT LOWERED.

Two Attempts to Beat Fast Time Prove Failures.

SEDALIA, Mo., Oct. 27.—Martha Wilkes, with running mate, failed to break her record of 2:08 yesterday on Sedalia's kite track. She had been lame since her appearance at Chillicothe, O., and Budd Doble stated before starting that he did not expect to do better than 2:11. Instead, however, the mile was covered in 2:08 1-2, to the delight of the 2,000 spectators.

Belle Acton made an effort to beat the world's yearling record of 2:20 1-2 but failed, coming under the wire in 2:26.

One Workman Kills Another.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—Denis Schakel, an employe of the Big Four railroad shops, was shot and mortally wounded yesterday evening by W. M. Cobler, another employe. The trouble between the men began Tuesday when Schakel was left in charge of the shop, and when Cobler reproved him for drinking and reported him to his superior. Yesterday as Cobler was passing into the shop to work he met Schakel, and he says the latter attempted to draw a pistol. Cobler drew his pistol and fired, the ball entering Schakel's right abdomen.

Married for Spite.

BLUFFTON, O., Oct. 27.—T. W. Messamore, of Jackson township, has left his home, abandoning his wife. He is supposed to have gone west. He told some neighbors last week that he had only married the woman to spite another fellow, and would not live with her. They were married last spring. It is hinted that he had married another lady in Hamilton county, in 1889, and had not a divorce from her. He thought he would be arrested for bigamy.

Effects of the Cholera in Hamburg.

HAMBURG, Oct. 27.—Persons connected with the relief work in this city report that a house to house inquiry has shown 15,000 workmen to be without employment and 8,000 small tradesmen to be financially ruined. There were seven fresh cases of cholera here yesterday and two deaths.

PERISHED IN FLAMES

A Number of Lives Lost in Burning Buildings.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY CREMATED.

An Early Morning Holocaust in Cleveland in Which Four People Meet Death. Twenty-One People Overcome at a Pittsburgh Fire—Fatal Blaze in New York. Other Fire Disasters.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 27.—A fire, most appalling in result, occurred about 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning in a two-story frame building at the corner of Central avenue and Harriet street, near the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad crossing, an entire family, consisting of a father, mother and two little boys perishing.

The building was owned by F. J. Vacha, and is a residence and store rooms combined. In half of the lower portion of the building was a saloon owned by James Shannon and John McGinty. Shannon and his family lived in the upper section of the building. They were the ones that perished. The cause of the fire could not be ascertained, but it was believed to have originated in the saloon.

The family, it is said, used the large front room as a sleeping apartment. They were all probably overcome by the smoke before the situation was realized. The front half of the building was completely destroyed and the four bodies were buried in the burned timbers. Shannon was thirty-eight years old and his wife thirty-two. The eldest boy, James, Jr., was six years old, and John, the youngest, four years.

Shannon's sister-in-law, Miss Sarah McGinty, lived with them, but attended a dance the previous night and had not returned when the fire occurred. Her life was thus probably saved. Shannon's business partner, John McGinty, was his brother-in-law. He was at the scene of the fire, and almost frantic with grief.

The search for bodies was begun by the firemen as soon as the debris could be sufficiently cooled. That of one of the boys was first recovered. It was unrecognizable, but it was believed to be that of the eldest. It had the appearance of being roasted. The head resembled a large black ball. The flesh had not dropped from the bones. The other bodies were later dug from the debris and were in about the same condition.

Another family lived in the rear of the building down stairs, C. H. Babcock and his wife. Babcock was seen by a reporter. He said he and his wife were awakened by the smell of smoke and escaped from the house. They were, however, almost suffocated.

OVERCOME AT A FIRE.

Twenty-One People Have a Narrow Escape from Death.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—At 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire of unknown origin was discovered in the cellar of D. Chestnut & Company, leather findings and boat supplies, 134 First avenue. The fire in itself was a small affair. Three engine companies responded to the alarm. The firemen went direct into the cellar, and a number of them were overcome by the smoke from the burning leather, oil, etc. They fell apparently lifeless in their tracks, where they remained several minutes before they were discovered.

Firemen Conley and Hawt were the first found, and were placed in an ambulance which started with them to the hospital. On the way there they came to and jumped out of the vehicle and returned to the fire, resuming work, only to be overcome a second time. They were finally landed in the hospital and physicians pronounce their condition very serious. In all twenty-one persons were overcome, all but one being firemen. The exception was Miss Chestnut, daughter of the owner of the store. She was soon resuscitated and will recover. The damage by the fire is small. The condition of Conley and Hawt gave rise to the report that two firemen were dead.

Fatal Flames in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A fire broke out in a six-story tenement house on East Broadway early yesterday morning. The four-year-old daughter of David Schreiber, who was alone in the room when the fire started, was burned to death. The firemen succeeded in putting out the flames with slight damage.

Burned Bicycles.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27.—The workshop and a storehouse of the Indiana Bicycle Manufacturing company, on South East street, burned shortly after midnight with a large quantity of material, machinery and finished product. The loss is about $55,000, with insurance of $60,000 in about thirty companies.

Store Destroyed.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., Oct. 27.—The big general merchandise store of C. J. Grant & Company, at Pauls Valley, I. T., was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss will reach nearly $50,000, insurance about $20,000. Origin unknown.

Postoffice Robbed.

COLLEGE CORNER, O., Oct. 27.—The postoffice and store at Cottage Grove, three miles north, was burglarized of $60 worth of stamps, boots and shoes and cash. J. W. Holland owns the store and is postmaster. An investigation is in progress.

Why Not an Irish Laureate?

DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—Irish newspapers are urging the claims of Irishmen to the poet laureateship. They suggest that Aubrey Thomas de Vere or Timothy Daniel Sullivan are well qualified to occupy the post.

TRADE WITH PALERMO.

Consul Pugh Makes Suggestions to American Merchants.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Consul Pugh writes to the state department from Palermo:

"There has been an increase in imports of $1,003,886.23, of which the sum of $93,629.44 was the increase on the part of the United States; but, with the exception of England, the countries of the triple alliance appear to have profited most in the increase.

"The largest item of importation from the United States was petroleum, and, while Italy does not produce a single gallon of petroleum, she imposes upon this article an import duty of about 200 per cent. On an importation of petroleum to the value of $183,251.77 she collected a duty of $343,208.40.

"In a former report mention was made of what appears to be a discrimination against the United States in the enormous import duty levied upon petroleum, coming principally from the United States, and in the export duty on brimstone and sumac, of the former of which the United States takes about double that of any other country and of the latter a very large proportion."

Of the total importations, Mr. Pugh says, but 5 per cent. come from the United States direct, though corn, wheat, cotton, lard and sewing machines from America reach the market through English and other houses. One reason why the direct trade is so small is that American merchants send price lists and circulars in the English language, which not one merchant in one hundred can read.

The superiority of American goods is acknowledged and Mr. Pugh suggests that some American firms combine to send a representative to Palermo to work up trade.

He thinks that a good business could be had in coal, as the Navigazione Generale Italiana has its chief offices at Palermo and imports a great deal of coal.

OCEAN VESSEL SUNK.

Twenty-Six People Saved from a Watery Grave in the Pacific Ocean.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The captain and crew of the American ship Joseph S. Spinne which was 138 days out from New York with a general cargo consigned to Sutton & Beebe, of this city, were brought here by the fishing steamer Farragut yesterday afternoon.

The Spinney struck on a sunken rock in the vicinity of Fort Ross, about seventy-five miles up the coast, and rapidly filled with water. She was deserted by the captain and crew, and now lies in about forty fathoms of water.

The Spinney would have reached this port in a short time, and was speeding along at a good rate. The lookout noticed that the sea ahead of the vessel appeared to be perfectly smooth, and he had no occasion to give a warning of any kind.

When the vessel struck it was with such force as to punch an enormous hole in her hull forward. The water rushed in at a tremendous rate and before the captain and crew realized the extent of the damage the ship was fast settling.

The pumps could not be worked fast enough to lower the body of water in the hold, and although the attempt to keep the vessel afloat was kept up for hours, it was finally decided that it was a useless job and the boats ordered lowered.

Twenty-six persons, comprising the crew, at once prepared to leave the sinking ship. They gathered together whatever effects were possible and shortly after lowered themselves into the boats and deserted the vessel that had brought them close to their journey's end.

RAILROAD COMBINATION.

Two Big Eastern Systems Have Been Consolidated.

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—A great railroad combination, rumors of which have been in the air for several weeks, was consummated yesterday. Parties largely interested in the Boston and Maine and Philadelphia and Reading railroads have made a friendly alliance.

This explains the surprising activity and sharp advance in the market price of Boston and Maine stock during the past fortnight. Vanderbilt interests were not the purchasers, as currently believed, but President McLeod, of the Reading, his friends and associates, and it is known that they have acquired large blocks of the stock.

Held the Doctor Responsible.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Oct. 27.—Dr. C. S. Kellogg, formerly of Chesterton now of Chicago, while at Chesterton set the broken femur of Hugo Strahl about a year ago. In recovery the limb shortened, and Strahl sued for damages. Last Thursday the first trial began in the circuit court here. Many witnesses, including physicians, were examined. The jury went out at 4 p. m., Tuesday, and remained till 4 a. m., yesterday. They returned a sealed verdict against Dr. Kellogg of $304.16 and costs. A new trial will be asked for.

French Mining Troubles.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—Arbitrator Loubet's decision in the Carmaux difficulty is that Calvignac, the socialist mayor, whose discharge caused the trouble, is reinstated with leave of absence during his term as mayor, and the strikers who have not been convicted of disorderly conduct are to be received back into the mine, and M. Humblot is to remain in as a director. The decision has astounded the Radicals and enraged the miners, who look upon it as a virtual surrender to the mine owners.

Shot His Playmate.

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 27.—Johnnie Fahner, twelve years old, shot eleven-year-old Bertie Dick, through the thigh with a .22-caliber target rifle. The boys were quarreling, and Fahner shot four times at his playmate, the second bullet fired taking effect.

PEACE DISTURBERS.

More Outrages Committed at Homestead.

ALL SURROUNDED IN MYSTERY.

The Secretary of the Advisory Board Says They Know Nothing of the Assaults—An Investigation Being Made, and Arrests Are Sure to Follow.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 27.—William McConegley, secretary of the advisory board, said yesterday with reference to the recent and frequent murderous assaults upon non-union workmen in Homestead: "If the parties who are committing these depredations are some of our own men, which is seriously doubted, I would like to see them brought to justice and will assist, as will every member of the board, to aid in accomplishing this end. An unjustified imputation has been cast upon us that we countenance these assaults. We do not and are the last persons who would give it encouragement, and we have more at stake. We are alive to this fact that these lawless acts prejudice our cases and are willing to aid, as far as it lays in our power, to ferret out and bring the guilty parties to justice."

Six assaults occurred last night, in which the men were severely beaten. The business men here are contemplating holding a mass-meeting and calling upon the law-abiding residents to come together and form an association to assist to put down the present reign of lawlessness. Deputy Wahlstadt said that he had secured sufficient evidence against the parties who committed the assault upon Mitchell Monday night to warrant him in making the arrests of a number of parties.

ROASTED IN A LIME KILN.

Two Men Meet a Horrible Death in Sight of Their Fellow-Workmen.

LIMA, Oct. 27.—At the Weston lime quarries yesterday afternoon some of the men had just finished burning a kiln of lime and were in the act of shutting it up when one of the logs, standing upon end and used as a brace, caught fire. Two of the men, Joseph Koontz and Henry Bowers, while trying to extinguish the flames, accidentally got on top of the kiln, which gave way, precipitating the men on the red hot lime.

The top fell in on them and it was impossible to get at the poor fellows, who were roasted alive in the presence of their helpless fellow workmen. Their groans and cries were terrible to hear. Both were unmarried. Fred Hearsh, who was handing them water, was also badly burned. He held on to a bar overhead and was rescued.

EXPLOSION EXPECTED.

Forest Fires Rapidly Approaching a Powder Mill.

FARMINGDALE, N. J., Oct. 27.—The forest along the tracks of the New Jersey Southern railroad between this place and Columbia siding is on fire, and is rapidly being consumed. A large force is making a fight, rendered almost ineffectual owing to the dryness of the underbrush.

The fire is on the west side of the tracks and fears are entertained that if the flames spread across the tracks they may reach the works of the Columbia powder mills, a quarter of a mile distant, where, it is said, several tons of powder are stored.

In Jail and Threatens Suicide.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Etta Birch, housekeeper in the family of Thomas Parrock, was found by members of the family lying on the floor bound hand and foot and gagged. She stated when released that tramps had burglarized the house and left her in the predicament in which she was found. Upon having her story doubted by Chief of Police Cantwell, she weakened and confessed that she had put up the job herself. She told where she hid the booty and jewelry valued at $1,000, which was recovered from a flower bed and $40 from her stocking. She was jailed and is now threatening suicide.

Died of Rabies.

CHESTERTON, Ind., Oct. 27.—The young son of Frank Knapp was bitten by a mad dog a month or so ago. The wound was a comparatively slight one, and, as after it had been dressed by a physician no especially evil effects were felt from it, the fear of hydrophobia passed. About a week since the lad, who was about ten years of age, began to act queerly, and soon exhibited symptoms of a genuine case of rabies. After suffering the most horrible agonies he died Monday.

Killed with a Walking Cane.

RICHMOND, Oct. 27.—A difficulty occurred last night in the bar room of J. W. Ryan, at the corner of Cory and Linden streets between James Ryan and John W. Rice. Rice struck Ryan with a walking cane, when the latter took the stick from him and inflicted a blow from which Rice died in a few hours. Ryan was arrested and lodged in jail. Rice leaves a wife and four children. Ryan is nineteen years of age and unmarried.

Will Die on the Scaffold.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 27.—The board of pardons has refused to commute the sentence of Murderer William F. Keck, and he will be hanged at Allentown on Nov. 10. It will be the first execution in Lehigh county.

Struck by a Locomotive.

LAFORTE, Ind., Oct. 27.—Mrs. H. E. Talmage, an old resident of Westville, this county, was struck and instantly killed by a locomotive on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Alida, this county.

HON. JASON BROWN,

Of Seymour, Ind.,

Saturday Night, Oct. 29,

At the Court House.

The public invited. Democrats are urged to be present. Seats reserved for ladies.

Voters, Take Notice.

Under the new law, the polls will close at 4 p. m. November 8th. If you fail to put in your ballot before that hour you will LOSE your vote. VOTE EARLY.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Kentucky, generally fair; western winds.

DEMOCRATIC literature has always been "unsightly" to Republicans, and the kind that denounces such outrages as the Force bill and the robber tariff, of course, shall prove no exception.

THE Vanceburg Sun calls attention to a matter that should not be lost sight of in the excitement of the campaign. It says: "Every Democrat should make it his special duty to vote at the coming election in November. The candidates are capable men and deserve the unqualified support of the party. Our representation in the convention for the next four years depends on the vote polled for President, and to this extent our influence in future conventions will be felt by what is done. No Democrat should be derelict in his duty at this important election."

WHAT KENTUCKY IS DOING FOR THE COLORED PEOPLE.

In his speech at the big Democratic gathering at Croppers, in Shelby County, Governor Brown gave this interesting answer to the statement that the Force bill is for the benefit of the negro:

"What has the negro to complain of? Is he not fairly treated in Kentucky? Ten years ago here in Kentucky, you gave the negro $37,000 to help educate his children; this year you gave him $286,000. Kentucky pays more for the education of her children, proportionately, than any State in the Union. There are 591,486 children of the school age in the State, of which 114,000 are colored. The per capita is the same for the one as the other and the per capita has been raised in ten years from fifty cents to two and a half dollars. Is this mistreating the negroes?"

COUNTY CULLINGS.

Items Picked Up by the Bulletin's Correspondents in Mason and Elsewhere.

CONCORD, LEWIS COUNTY.

The Democrats of Concord precinct having learned that the County Executive Committee with the Alliance party had asked the withdrawal of Mr. L. C. Hisey as candidate for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket at the coming election, held a meeting and passed a resolution requesting Mr. Hisey to remain on the ticket, and assuring him of support from them and a majority in the precinct of fifty or more—the precinct being largely Republican. Mr. Hisey responded and said at this late date he would not consider a withdrawal, but would remain a candidate, and would not be governed by the Vanceburg ring or Alliance party, but would go in to win the race, which he was confident of doing, and also carry Mr. Stricklett, candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, through. The proceedings were ordered to be sent to the Maysville BULLETIN and Portsmouth Times, with a request that they be published in their daily and weekly editions.

TOLLESBORO, LEWIS COUNTY.

Dr. Nes Jordan, of Bloomington, Ill., paid his father's family a brief visit here the first of the week. He will be accompanied home by his mother.

"Uncle" Lewis Gidding, who has been a patient at the Lexington Insane Asylum, has returned home from that institution, cured.

Tommy Parker, son of J. Winn Parker, has returned home from an extended visit to friends in Kansas and Missouri. Tom prefers "Old Kentucky" to the West.

Arold, little son of the late Dr. R. N. Taylor, who has been quite sick with a severe sore throat, is convalescing.

A. C. Owens, who has been quite ill for some time past with malaria, is improving.

Hendrick Goodwin is convalescing from malarial fever.

Miss Eliza Barkley, who has been seriously ill for some time, is better.

Geo. R. Boyd, of Watertown, Tenn., is visiting relatives and friends here.

Our enterprising merchant, T. H. Ruggles, is making improvements to his dwelling by the addition of a new front.

Alonzo Jones, Republican candidate for Circuit Clerk in this county, was in this section the first of the week looking after his fences.

J. Nes Teager is soliciting for the Blue Grass Loan Association of Lexington in the southern part of the State.

Mrs. Hattie Brewer is ill with malarial fever.

A scrapping match was one of the amusements in the west end of town here on Sunday last. Shame!

Served 'Em Right.

Says the Covington Commonwealth: "Manager Ed. R. Salter, of the 'Ole Olson' company, deserves the thanks and patronage of the public. Charles Herman, son of the Superintendent of the Louisville water works, and another society dude who considered himself equally irresistible as a masher, followed the theatrical party to the hotel after the performance, and scorning the formality of an introduction, sent up a note inviting Lottie Williams, the leading lady, to go out to supper with them. Mr. Salter answered the note in person, and gave the vulgar little beasts a severe drubbing before they could escape from the hotel parlor. Decent people should make it a point to patronize the company wherever it appears, as the best expression of their approval of the manager's praiseworthy punishment of ill-bred insolence."

Burr Oaks Democrats.

One of the banner Democratic clubs of the county, the "Burr Oak Single X Democratic Club," held their regular weekly meeting last night at Key's school house. A large crowd was present, the members displaying their wonted zeal. The speakers invited for the occasion, Messrs. Frank O'Donnell and C. L. Sallee, entertained the assembly for about two hours. There were several additions to the list, making nearly fifty members enrolled to date. The speakers with several of the pillars of Democracy of the precinct, were royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James Key, at supper. The club will meet at the school house election morning and march to the polls in a body.

Disappointed Lovers.

Mr. Harvey Vice and his best girl arrived from near Moorefield about 5 o'clock this morning, and crossed over to Aberdeen to get married. They were unable to find any one there to tie the knot for them, and returning to this city tried to secure license from County Clerk Pearce.

The young lady was only nineteen years old, and the Clerk refused to grant the couple the coveted papers. The disappointed lovers returned home.

It is learned that Harrison Bradford who has been marrying people without authority, of late, at Aberdeen, is making himself scarce at that place since he was indicted. The unlawful business has been broken up, temporarily at least.

Tuckahoe Democrats.

The Tuckahoe Single X Democratic Club now has sixty members. The regular weekly meeting was held last night, a large crowd being in attendance. Deputy County Clerk Thomas Slattery and Mr. Ben T. Cox were the speakers.

Mr. Patrick Slattery, of this club, is the originator of the single X idea that is spreading all over the State. He is one of the staunchest Democrats of this county, and has six or seven sons who are "chips of the old block."

Miss FROHMAN is an actress of charming presence and has received the highest praise from press and public. "The Witch" tells a story of Salem, Mass., in the days of witchcraft. The grim quaintness of dress, speech and manners of colonial times are strictly observed, while the scenic effects are superb and the entire production in accord with all the plays presented by the Frohmans. The cast includes twenty-four people who have been specially selected to fit the part assigned to them. The play deals with an interesting subject—a subject which gives scope for honest acting and intense dramatic episodes. It is safe to say that no better play or company will be seen here this season. To be here early in December.

AUDITOR NORMAN has addressed a letter to Mr. Dulaney, Chairman of the Kentucky World's Fair Commission, in which he again and finally declines to honor the warrants. In his ultimatum the Auditor says he will only honor a mandamus. He plainly informs them that if they will enter suit against him the question in dispute could be settled in two weeks.

MR. JOHN BROMLEY and Miss Dora Swisher were married a year ago at Lawrenceburg, Ind., but kept the matter a secret until a few days ago.

EX-COMMANDER REA

Of the G. A. R. Comes Out for Honest Grover Cleveland.

He Tells Why He Will Vote for the Democratic Platform and the Man Who Stands on it.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 25.—It develops at a late hour to-night that John P. Rea, Ex-Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has deserted the Republican party. It is as yet known to but few men of his party, but it is believed that Judge Rea's flop means that the Republican party is doomed in this State. Judge Rea has held many offices under his party, and two years ago stumped the State for his ticket. The significant part of the affair is that Judge Rea's conversion was primarily brought about by Cleveland's pension vetoes. Speaking of his change of heart Judge Rea said to-night: "There was so much talk in Grand Army circles on the subject of these pension vetoes that I determined to look it up for myself. I did so thoroughly, and the result is that I will show what I think of it by voting for Mr. Cleveland. I failed to find a single veto that was not based upon principles of right and justice, and I honor Cleveland for his upright and manly course.

"I believe his sympathies are and always have been with the old soldier, and I can prove my belief in no more convincing way than by giving to him the first vote I have ever cast for a Democrat.

"In the next place, I am convinced the Republican party is wrong in its tariff theories, and that the country will say so at the coming election in unmistakable language, and on this account also I will cast my vote for the Democratic platform and the man who stands upon it. In Minnesota there is every reason why a thinking man should support Lawlor, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and I will be one of the many good Republicans who will support him.

"The Republican party is on the wrong track both in State matters and in the Nation, and must be brought to a realizing sense of its position by a thrashing that will teach it a lesson. This thrashing will come in two weeks, and then I hope the party will correct and purify itself and make itself worthy the support of all Republicans."

A United Press dispatch from Minneapolis to the Louisville Commercial, a Republican paper, says: "The Republicans are astounded and refuse to believe the story, but Judge Rea confirms it with his own lips."

Clay Clement.

Says the Cincinnati Enquirer: "Lovers of the higher plane of the drama anticipate the engagement of Clay Clement at the Pike Opera House. The clientele of the Pike are fully aware that Manager Ballenberg would not place the seal of approbation upon this young man unless he was justified in stating without qualification that his appearances are worthy the attention and criticism of those who appreciate the most intelligent interpretation of the most meritorious dramatic creations. Mr. Clement's repertoire consists of 'The Bells' and 'The Mountebank.'

"Mr. Clement's work in this play is said to compare most favorably with that of Henry Irving, whose appearances as Matthias are treasured among the most valuable facts of recent theatrical history.

"The young star is a handsome man, possessing grace, a deep, full-toned voice, and he is sufficiently versatile to amply meet all the requirements of the character.

"The company is said to be an excellent one. It is headed by Miss Adelaide Fitz Allen, a gifted actress."

Mr. Clement will appear at Washington Opera House, this city, November 7th. Reserved seat tickets on sale at Nelson's October 31st.

Bronston Goes to Illinois.

At the urgent request of the National Committee, Mr. C. J. Bronston will speak in Illinois during the last week of the campaign, his engagements in this State during that week having been canceled by consent of the State Central Committee. Mr. Bronston is one of the best speakers in the State, and his failure to fill all the appointments made for him will be a great disappointment, especially at this place, where he is very popular and greatly admired. His services, however, are more needed in Illinois, and his effective work there will no doubt add many votes to the Democratic column.

Judge Goodpaster is young in politics, as in years, but it was the opinion of a large majority that he more than held his own with the astute and experienced orator from Fleming."

TWO SETS OF RULES.

Will Not This Sort of Thing Scare Of Exhibitors?

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—As a result of the quarrels between local and national officers of the fair two sets of rules have been issued for the government of the exposition. The set prepared by the local directors is incomplete, and does not furnish exhibitors any information that they did not have more than a year ago. The rules prepared by the national commission cover the field thoroughly, and from them exhibitors may learn just what the expense of making an exhibit will be.

The rules were prepared by the commissioner from West Virginia and embrace everything from the cost of power and light furnished to exhibitors to the price of admission, time of opening and closing the gates and the general administration of the exposition. Those who have not followed the history of the world's fair may think that the two boards now at outs have attached unnecessary importance to these rules, but such is not the case. The regulations take in every subject affecting the rights of exhibitors and the public.

Probably 100,000 exhibitors will be represented at the fair and from 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 visitors, all of whom are concerned in these regulations. The act of congress provides that the Chicago board shall prepare these rules and that the national commission shall modify them. The commission modified the directory rules by substituting those prepared by General St. Clair.

This action was unanimous, each of the four members present voting for the St. Clair code. Judge Lindsay, of Kentucky, said the rules, as modified by the national board, would prevail in spite of anything the local directors could do.

"It's as plain as a pike staff," he said. "If the directors attempt to evade these true rules exhibitors can go into the courts and compel them to obey the modified regulations."

President Higginbotham said the local board does not recognize the right of the national commission to make rules on new subjects.

"They have no authority to do other than modify the rules we sent to them," he said. "It is not possible at this time to make regulations for the conduct of the exposition. When the time comes we may approve the regulations adopted by the national board. If they suit us we will approve them; if not, we will reject them."

DEATH IN A FRIGHTFUL MANNER.

A Young Student of Electricity Receives a Fatal Shock.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—Edward Wood, a young man employed at the Westinghouse Electric works, met death yesterday in a frightful manner. While on an electric light pole, near the Westinghouse building, he caught hold of a heavily charged electric wire and was instantly killed. When taken from the pole young Wood was hanging over the cross arm, face downward, and blood was streaming from his nose and mouth.

He was carried into the main office of the company and physicians summoned. After an examination, the physicians stated that the man was dead. The palms of both hands were burned to the bone, which was the only visible marks on the body. Mr. Woods was twenty-four years old, a nephew of General Manager Woods, of the Pennsylvania company. His home is in Philadelphia. He came to the Westinghouse company a few months ago as a student, and was taking an expert course of lessons in electricity.

DISTURBERS OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Two Men Convicted of Robbing Five Different Postoffices.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27.—The jury in the case against Thomas Hughes and Mike Coleman, charged with robbing five postoffices, came into court yesterday with a verdict finding the defendants guilty as indicted on all the counts except as to Hughes, whom they found not guilty as to the charge of robbing Pleasantville postoffice.

The defendants offered no evidence during the trial, hoping that the court would exclude the testimony of Cook Hall, who was jointly indicted with the defendants and who pleaded guilty and then testified against the defendants. The case will be taken to the court of appeals with a view of having the question of the admissibility of the evidence of one who has been convicted of murder and larceny tested. Their attorney at once made a motion for a new trial.

Death of an Iron King.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 27.—Zenas King, one of Cleveland's most widely known citizens and president of King Iron Bridge company, died last night at his residence on Euclid avenue. He was a pioneer in iron bridge building, the most notable structure of that character, being the one between Newport, Ky., and Cincinnati. He was born in Kingston, Vt., May 1, 1818.

Rowan County War Renewed.

MOOREHEAD, Ky., Oct. 27.—As a result of wounds received in the combat between the Tolliver and Howard factions, at Hogtown, Oct. 23, Willie Tolliver died last night. Samuel Howard's death is a question of but a few hours. The friends of both families are well armed, and a renewal of the famous Rowan county war is expected.

Locomotive Boiler Explodes.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 27.—The boiler of a freight engine on the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham railway exploded at Palas, Ala., yesterday, instantly killing Engineer Harry Monroe and Fireman William Church. Conductor Frank Black was fatally injured. The bodies of the engineer and fireman were blown to atoms.

Canada's Copyright Kick.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—The Dominion government is reported preparing a memorial to the imperial authorities asking that Canada be released from the provisions of the Berne copyright convention.

Two Composers Asphyxiated.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Two printers, Boris Goddard, of Terre Haute, Ind., and John Glanser, of St. Louis, were found dead in their room yesterday morning.

Stevenson's Letter Almost Ready.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—General Adlai E. Stevenson paid an early visit to ex-President Cleveland yesterday at the latter's residence. The two men were closeted for about two hours. It is believed that their conference was principally relative to Mr. Stevenson's letter of acceptance, which will soon be given to the public.

First Eagle for Seven Years.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Oct. 27.—Yesterday John Clark, residing near this city, observed a large gray eagle sailing over his farm. A tame crow did battle with the intruder and brought it so near the earth that Clark shot it. The bird measured seven feet from tip to tip of wings.

Intelligent Ants.

Several species of ants in South America make raids on the black ants, rob them of their larvae and compel the poor black ants to be their slaves. In the burying of their dead, ants show wonderful intelligence, having cemeteries, and even bury their slaves in a different place from their masters and are quite up in funeral pageantry. Much may be learned from ant life in their wonderful government, sanitary arrangement, common brotherhood, nursing and care of the young, temperance and love of fresh air.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osgood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kincheloe,
Coburn, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
